

You've got three months to apply

If you're new to your role you must apply for SSSC registration within three months of starting.

- It's easy to get started
- Create your MySSSC account on our website
- Your employer will help you to complete your application

Get your application started today

Scan the QR code

